The other charge is that of attempted bribery, and grows out of the charge of District Attorney Halverson that Mike Richie, a countryman of Berlin and of Pepe, tendered him a sealed envelope containing $20, asking that the district attorney use his influence to have the case against Berlin dismissed. Warrants were based for both Berlin and Richie, on complaint of Mr. Halverson, but Berlin has been missing since the issuance of the warrant, until yesterday, when he telephoned that he would give himself up, and did so. Berlin said that he had been hiding in the city, on the advice of friends and through their aid, but that on thinking the matter over he decided to face the charges.

Berlin's bond was fixed by City Judge John D. Murphy, and last night he secured bondsmen and was released.

Mans For North and South Lines

The troubles at the household of Henry Larsen of Harrisville have not yet been settled. Yesterday one of the sons of Mr. Larsen telephoned to the office of the sheriff that be father had returned home, and a disturbance was in prospect despite the fact that the head of the household had promised Judge Howell he would not return to his domietle until the officers had completed their investigations. Judge Howell released Larsen in accordance with the report of Drs. Coulter and Harris, who examined the man. The headline over the story of the Larsen affair appearing in yesterday's Herald was misleading to the extent that it intimated the judge's action was out of line with the recommendation.
